

Welcome to South County

We hope you had a very Merry Christmas with your family. The decorations may be about to be put back in the boxes and bins, but your Savior is with you everyday. Keep your life focused on the King throughout the year and continually point people toward a relationship with Him.

Things to be Praying About

1. Pray for opportunities for you to share the love of Christ with family and friends during this Christmas season.
2. Continue to pray for the leadership that God will protect them from temptation and lead them in planning for next year.
3. Pray for God to give us great creativity for the South County Cares Organization and the 2009 Care Projects.
